

Office of the Commissioner for Kangaroo Island

CONGRATULATIONS TO KANGAROO ISLAND AT TOURISM AWARDS

November 7 2016

Commissioner for Kangaroo Island Wendy Campana recently attended the 2016 South Australian Tourism Awards, and is delighted to congratulate several Kangaroo Island businesses honoured on the night.

South Australia's best Ecotourism experience was awarded to Seal Bay, with Tourism Kangaroo Island being named South Australia's best Visitor Information Service.

In all, thirty category winners were awarded, judged to be the best in their category.

Island businesses to win medals were Silver to Kangaroo Island Ocean Safari, in the Tour and Transport Operators category.

Dudley Wines was awarded Silver for Tourism, Wineries, Distilleries and Breweries and in the Self Contained Accommodation, Sea Dragon Lodge on Cape Willoughby Road won Silver.

"We had a great night ... our state is crammed full with wonderful tourism venues and operators, so to bring home these awards shows the high esteem in which our businesses on Kangaroo Island are held," Ms Campana said.

The Media Release from the South Australian Tourism Industry Council follows.